FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT TRAINING

TERMS OF REFERENCE.

The African Women’s Development Fund (AWDF) is a grant making foundation that supports local, national and regional women’s organisations working towards the empowerment of African women and the promotion and realisation of women’s rights and recognition of African women’s leadership in all spheres of life. Through specialising in grant making and focused, tailored movement-building programmes, AWDF works to strengthen and support the work of African women’s organisations. By amplifying and celebrating African women’s voices and achievements, AWDF supports efforts that combat harmful stereotypes, and promote women as active agents of change.

AWDF’s operations are centred on grant making, capacity building and movement building. The organisation supports both established and small, locally based women’s organisations. It also provides specialised funding to facilitate learning and networking opportunities and to celebrate the contributions and achievements of many un-sung African heroines.

BACKGROUND TO CONSULTANCY

For the last decade AWDF has complimented its grant making support with capacity building activities to ensure that women’s rights organisations who receive grants from AWDF have the right skills sets, support and capacity to sustain their women’s rights work and organisations in Africa. AWDF applies different methodologies including feminist coaching and skills training in its capacity building activities and these have produced effective results in many cases. Our key capacity building trainings cover:

1. Financial Management
2. Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning (Results Based Programming)
3. Resource Mobilisation
4. Leadership and Governance strengthening Project
5. Communications
6. Effective Advocacy

AWDF is seeking a bilingual trainer (English and French) for its Financial Management training.
